

January 6th, 2010

Dear Eagle Brothers and Sisters,

It is with great distress that the Casual Learning Day must once again be POSTPONED. Sometimes scheduling can be a huge headache, as was the case in August and September.

Now, Ol' Man Winter has worked his blustery magic upon us and we are having the worst winter we've seen in years. I don't know what you think, but I think it's pretty ugly out there. And, since many of you would have to travel to get here - AND ANOTHER STORM IS PREDICTED - I am just not comfortable with the risk. (I do remember that when we had the first Casual Learning Day - in January - the participants were going outside in their shirtsleeves to have their cigarettes.)

Anyway, it is the prudent thing to do to POSTPONE the Casual Learning Day to a Saturday in March. It will be either the 6th or the 20th, so please reconsider your plans. Hopefully, Ol' Man Winter will not bewitch Mother Nature in March, and we will have a good day.

The learning is shaping up to be outstanding, with plenty of valuable information as well as practical applications of the concepts to be presented. January is also very busy with board meetings, Triathlon, winter, etc., so our state leadership may be more available for participating in March.

There will no changes regarding registration, instructions, and topics as outlined on the state web pages. Please call me if you have questions. I can be reached at (402)731-3472 or (402)680-5886, or e-mail at rthomas2@cox.net.

I do apologize for this turn of events. But, I absolutely, without a doubt - even if we have to meet at my house - promise that WE WILL HAVE A CASUAL LEARNING DAY. Stay tuned for further developments.

As Always in Fraternalism,
Janis Thomas
